The Sea Coast Echo

BAY ST. LOUIS, MISSISSIPPI, THURSDAY, JANUARY 5, 1961

VOL. 70, NO. 1

DEATH CAR - This is the 1954 model automobile in which James Reeves of Lakeshore and his 19-year-old son, Paul Andy Blankenship, rode to their death early Monday morning on Beach Blvd. at Jackson Ridge. They were the county's first traffic fatalities of the New Year.

First Fatalities of 1961

Father, Son Killed

Hancock County chalked up its first two traffic fatalities of 1961 when the New Year was only about 27 hours old.

The pair were James A. Reeves, 43, of Lakeshore, and his son, Paul Andy Blankenship, 19, who met their death in a one-car automobile accident about 2:30 a.m. Monday on Beach Blvd. at Jackson Ridge. An investigation of the scene showed that Reeves, headed from Waveland toward Clearmont Harbor went off the road to his right about the point where the dirt road leads to the county garbage dump at Jackson Ridge. The car then swerved to the left and hit the sea wall, when apparently Reeves and his son were thrown out. Reeves into the Mississippi Sound and the son onto the road with the car apparently rolling over the son.

The accident was discovered by Louis Bourgeois and J.D. Peterson of Waveland and Bobby Lusher of Anslie who went to Town Marshal Fred Bourgeois' home to notify him. Bourgeois called Deputy Sheriff Robert Coleman who was on the night patrol duty and proceeded to the scene with Deputy James Favre. Ory Bourgeois of Waveland recovered Reeves' body from the water.

Coleman reported that Reeves appeared to be the driver of the 1954 two-door Ford sedan. He theorized that Reeves lost control of the car which hit the guard rail at the edge of the road and scraped along it for a short distance before flipping over.

Value of the liquor was placed at $2,700 plus over $2,200 in cash taken by four masked and armed bandits on Rt. 603 near Kiln, according to Bert Stiefel, one of the owners.

Ray Stiefel, another owner, has been working closely with a special investigator employed by the sheriff whose name is being withheld temporarily upon request of Sheriff Price.

Coincidentally, a truck owned by D. J. Vance Beverage Co. of Gulfport was found early Dec. 29 by Harold Stiglen, a Stiefel employee. Apparently the truck had been used to transport a $20,000 load of liquor from the Vance warehouse on U. S. 49 to Kiln where it was chambered.

Named Band Head
Jay M. Cova has been appointed by the county board of education to serve as band director on Tuesdays and Fridays at North Central School.

The car skidded about 75 feet further before coming to stop on its top. The motor was knocked loose and remained at about a 45-degree angle under the hood. The transmission was broken loose from its brackets.

The bodies were taken to Fehry Funeral Home by Percy (Cont. on Page 5)

Waveland Street

Correction Pushed

Waveland Town Council Tuesday voted to push Gulf Paving Co. to complete its contract on the construction of four miles of street started in 1958.

Council decided to notify the surety company holding a $28,400 bond on Gulf Paving Co. of Gulfport that the paving firm has failed to complete its contract. Demand is being made by the bonding company that unless Gulf Paving does comply with the contract the bonding company will be called upon to do so.

While the streets were constructed in 1958 they have not yet been accepted by the town because of reports the construction does not meet contract specifications. Dispute over whether or not the streets meet specifications has continued since 1958.

Engineer J. Norton Haas, Jr., employed by the town and paid by the company to determine the condition of the streets, reported in November that they are substandard and complete replacement would be necessary to bring them up to specifications. Haas said, however, that replacement would be impractical and suggested ways of repairing the work to bring it as near as possible to specifications.

Able O'Koon, general manager of Gulf Paving, blasted the Haas report as "unfair" and said he would have another engineer check the streets and that unless that engineer comes up with the same findings he would take the issue to court. According to O'Koon's office the second survey has not yet been made.

Council accepted a bid from Lee's Plumbing for two lavatory closets, urinals and other lavatory equipment for Town Hall. Cost of the fixtures and labor was placed at $301.50. They are to replace the outdated facilities previously outside of the building.

Insurance costing $145.77 on the new gas and water department pickup truck was also approved, and three new tires were authorized for the garbage truck, two to be purchased this month and one next month.

3 Negroes Face Trial in Theft From Casanova

Three Negroes were arrested Friday and charged with the theft of a 12-gauge shotgun and headlight from the car of Elmer Casanova, Jr., of Logansport, Bay St. Louis, Beat 1 Candidate Martin G. Dean reported.

The three (identified as Leroy Christensen of Bogalusa, Wilma Peters and Freddie Lee of Rt. 1, Napoleon community. They are to be tried before Beat 1 Justice of the Peace Lester Hoover Saturday.

Dean also reported that the teenagers were arrested for breaking and entering near Logansport fishing camp and allegedly stealing several hundred dollars worth of property.

Board Appoints Gex Attorney

A clean sweep of key county employees hired on a yearly basis was made at the board of supervisors' first meeting of the year Tuesday.

On controversial appointments the board split three to two, Charles Lavinghouse, Ike M. Frierson and James Necaise joining forces. No changes in salaries were made against President R. G. Hubbard and Charles Russ.

The split came on the first appointment which was for board attorney when Russ' motion that Sam L. Favre, Jr., be reappointed died for lack of a second. Frierson's motion that Lucien M. Gex be appointed also died because of no second and after several attempts to get a second on one of the motions Hubbard tabled the issue.

Later in the morning Hubbard again brought up the subject saying the board had to have an attorney. Russ again moved for Favre but received no second and after some hesitation Necaise seconded Frierson's motion to appoint Gex. Vote was 5-0.

Frierson, Necaise and Lavinghouse, ay; Hubbard and Russ, nay. The board attorney receives $150 per month.

Cornelius J. Ledner, local attorney, was appointed veterans' service officer on motion of Frierson seconded by Necaise after Russ' motion that John D. Rutherford, Jr., be reappointed received no second. The appointment pays $100 per month.

The board moved through the annual appointments with such speed the clerk had difficulty recording the vote and had to ask for a repeat on several occasions. Hubbard remarked at the close of the meeting at mid-afternoon, members not having stopped for lunch, that they had accomplished more that day than at any other meeting during his many years on the board.

A reorganization of the engineering department came when Arthur MacArthur, about 65, former chief engineer of Harrison County, was named to succeed Enoch L. Kennedy, also of Gulfport as chief engineer. Kennedy was also chief engineer for Harrison County, his reappointment to that post not yet having been confirmed by the Harrison board.

Arthur J. Rogers, 59, of Gulfport was named to succeed Curtis (Red) Mobley as assistant chief engineer. Vote followed the previous pattern, Russ' motions for reappointment of the jobholders receiving no second, while Lavinghouse's motion for appointment of the new men were seconded by Necaise and voted for by those two and Frierson against Hubbard and Russ.

Job of chief engineer pays $250 per month while the assistant receives $600. Clerk Claiborne J. Lusher said it is customary for the assistant to perform the actual work, the chief engineer merely approving his actions.

Kiln Road Bids Called Jan. 24

The State Highway Department has called for bids at 10 a.m. Jan. 24 for construction of the new Rt. 603, a 3.95 mile strip from U. S. 90 near Bay St. Louis to Kiln.

Contract time for relocation of the highway is 250 days and for construction of the bridge is 300 days.

Building construction and business were down in 1960 compared to 1959 but sales tax collection increased, according to reports compiled in the offices of City Commissioners J. Cyril Glover and Warren Traub.

Commissioner of Public Utilities Glover said building permits issued during 1960 amounted to $291,479.50 compared to $1,156,207 in 1959. Glover explained however that the 1959 report was extremely high because of the permits issued that year for Hancock General Hospital, North Bay Elementary School and Our Lady of the Gulf School.

City Moves Along On Planning Ordinance

Discussion of subdivision regulations consumed most of Bay St. Louis Commission Council's first meeting of 1961 Tuesday when City Attorney Dan M. Russell, Jr., was directed to examine ordinances employed by other municipalities and to prepare a suitable one for the city permitting it to adopt the regulations.

A set of regulations has been prepared by Robert S. Bateman and Associates, city planning consultants of Mobile, following approval by the City Planning Commission in November.

Council indicated that the regulations would be adopted by them after the ordinance is prepared and properly advertised. In other matters, W. A. Alexander, owner of the Driftwood Motel, petitioned council to exempt his establishment on U. S. 90 from city income tax.

Commissioner J. Cyril Glover observed that the motel was not in the corporate city limits and therefore would not be subject to city taxes but would be subject to municipal school taxation. He recd Sec. 9703.5 of the (Cont. on Page 5.)

It's Poll Tax Time Again

It's that time again! The office of Sheriff Gerald Price was packed this morning with taxpayers eager to avoid last minute rushes and delinquent charges.

Property and poll taxes are being collected during January. Voters are reminded of the Democratic primary May 9 for city officers. Registration books closed this month in advance of the date.

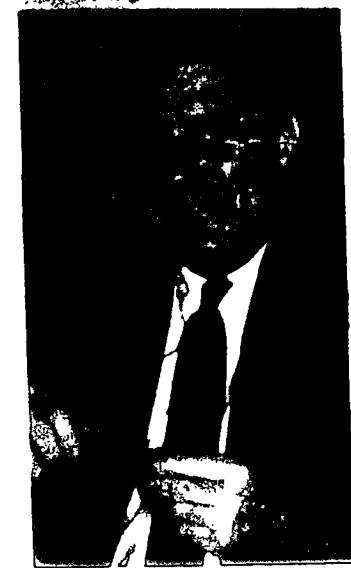

No other elections are scheduled for 1961 at this time, but there is always the possibility of special ones. Last date for paying poll tax is Jan. 31.

Youth Center Drive Lagging

Only three contributions were received by the 1960 Bay St. Louis Youth Center Drive during the past week bringing the total to less than half of the $1,500 goal set for this year.

Donors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Biehl, Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald and Christ Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Paul M. Miller, chairman, observed that the drive will continue until the goal is reached.

Courrage States Gulfview Plan 'Unacceptable'

The county board of education's plan to relieve overcrowded conditions at Gulfview School are not satisfactory to its patrons, the new Beat 5 member, A. Gordon Courrage of Lakeshore, told the board at its regular organizational meeting Tuesday.

Bids are due at 10 a.m. Sunday on the project designed by Architect Fred Wagner and urged by Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Courrage's predecessor, after several more elaborate attempts to ease the situation were rejected as too costly by the State Education Finance Commission.

The board is scheduled to reconvene Saturday morning to get the bids and in case there is not a quorum bids will be accepted and held for opening at a later date.

Courrage said the present plan will not do any good and the patrons object to the front of the school being closed with a principal's office to be created in the entrance corridor. He objected that taking the stage out into teaching areas will not provide any more space. The school needs two classrooms, he continued, suggesting one be built this year and another next year.

"If you gentlemen will go along with me I will appreciate it very much," he told the board.

Charles Murphy of Beat 1 who was reelected board president for the coming year observed, "I've always been one to go along with the member from the district involved in these matters."

Trustee Alton D. Keller of Beat 2 remarked that the board had been trying to work out some relief within its means and Courrage countered he could not see paying $18,000 for two classrooms when the whole school only cost $22,000 15 years ago.

County Superintendent of Education Kenneth G. McCarty called attention to the fact that current (Cont. on Page 5.)

Kenny's Name Said Restored to List

State Highway Patrolman William P. Kenny's name has been restored to the new uniform list this week following rumors from Jackson that he and 21 patrolmen were scheduled to be discharged.

The reported discharges were a result of trouble between public safety commission Tom Shelton and finance officer Boyd Golding, both appointees of Gov. Ross Barnett.

Barnett denied that the 22 men were scheduled for dismissal but a Jackson reporter said their names were not on the list prepared by Golding for new uniforms.

Linda Marie Montgomery 1st Infant of New Year

Linda Marie Montgomery claims the honor of being the first baby born in Hancock County in 1961.

She was born to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Montgomery, 410 Jeff Davis Ave., Waveland, in Hancock General Hospital at 10:40 a.m. Sunday, Jan. 1, weighing 10 pounds, four ounces.

The mother, the former Miss Mildred Peck, said she and her husband are very happy to have the first baby of the year, but that they are even happier in having a daughter. Their other four children are boys.

Mrs. Montgomery said "I don't know which is the proudest, me or her pappy." However, one of the boys feels a bit different. She said son, Howard, 7, was taken to see his sister at the hospital and wasn't too pleased. The mother said she told him the hospital only had girls so he had to take a girl. To this Howard commented, "I wish they'd had a boy. I'm used to boys, not girls."

Rauxel Wins Bank Contract

Construction of the Merchant's Bank branch on Coleman Avenue will start in the latter part of January, Joe B. Burrow, cashier and operating head of Merchant's Bank announced Friday.

The drive-in bank is expected to be in operation within two months after work is begun, he added.

Successful bidder was August Rauxel who offered the lowest of three bids, Burrow said. Amounts of the bids were not disclosed but the total investment will be approximately $23,000, he said.

The building will be completely burglar-proof and bullet-proof with two bullet-proof drive-up windows, a small vestibule enclosed in glass, night depository and package receiver for the convenience of walking customers.

Site of the bank is adjacent to Eileen's Dress Shop on Coleman Avenue a short distance from Beach Boulevard. The property was purchased from Delmar Wilcox and plans were made by DeBoll-Kessels and Associates, architects of New Orleans.

Burrow said equipment scheduled to be shipped January 13 and construction will start immediately upon its receipt.

Sport Fund Study Slated

County school authorities are slated to tackle in the next few days in an effort to determine how to deal with North Central School's athletic equipment bills.

The question came up at the board's final session of 1960 last Thursday when Truman Schmitz, Hawk football coach, appeared and again at Tuesday's meeting when Attorney Walter J. Phillips finally suggested that he and Principal Leo Rouse go over the whole picture in detail.

A good many bills incurred by the school are outstanding and while it had been anticipated the school's athletic fund could carry them, Rouse expressed concern because of decreased attendance at the various sports event this season. Game receipts, particularly from basketball, a fall usually provide the bulk of income for the fund and school board members commented that even with as good a season as last year's state champions Hawks, they have not been drawing anything like the crowds.

The system's budget provides $600 for athletics at North Central and $100 for each of the elementary schools.

The board had called in Schmitz when some of the school's athletic bills were placed before it but the coach explained those were not the board's obligation. It was noted that one equipment purchase from Mississippi School Supply Co. was to be paid in installments from the fund with the board standing behind the purchase if the fund could not meet it.

The method of payment for team transportation also came up, some members feeling the 20-cent a mile formula was unduly depleting the athletic fund.

Attorney Phillips reported Thursday night on the elementary fund's opinion on the system's general supply following some dialogue as to whether Sealens, whose successful bid was submitted last summer by Lester Hoover of Pearlport, would continue to service the schools. The opinion held that since in essence the contract was with Sealens, the supply could not be moved as long as Sealens was willing to serve. Superintendent K. G. McCarty reported he has written assurance from the firm it will make good any bid milk received.

Transfer of $5,000 from the transportation fund to the district fund was authorized in anticipation of tax receipts. The board also received an offer from Brothers Felician of St. Stanislaus College to purchase discarded bus seat frames at $8 each and approved the sale on a piece-meal basis.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Honor and Radicals

The Echo editorially supported the candidacy of president-elect, then senator, John Kennedy, and his running mate and colleague, Lyndon Johnson, notwithstanding Johnson's partial defection from concepts in which his Southern colleagues generally believed.

Another Texas has now joined our vice president-elect in desertion of ideas he for many years has supported. The venerable speaker of the House of Representatives, Hon. Sam Rayburn, Democrat from Texas, has lost his powerful influence in support of those who wish to oust our district's representative, Hon. William Colmer, from his position of importance on the powerful Rules Committee.

Two bases for this move have been advanced that Mr. Colmer supported the independent Democratic electors in the presidential race last fall and that, together with Chairman Howard W. Smith, Democrat of Virginia, he has too often combined with the conservative Republican minority to keep radical bills from being considered by the House of Representatives.

That Mr. Colmer, as a committee member, voted one way or the other on legislation does not even qualify as a flimsy excuse for a change in his position as senior Democratic member of the Rules Committee. His right to remain on the committee and to continue his seniority is buttressed by years of practice in the House. Honorable people don't try to change the rules in the middle of a contest.

Supporting the independent electors in the presidential race as a basis of changing Mr. Colmer's committee assignment and seniority might have at least some merit were it not that the radicals clamoring for such a switch. When New York's Negro and radical Democratic representative, Adam Clayton Powell, openly campaigned for the Republican presidential nominee, President Dwight Eisenhower, few, if any, of the radicals questioned his right to keep his committee assignment, his Democratic affiliation and his seniority, yet he went rather than did Mr. Colmer.

It is not honorable to have different rules depending on whether someone is on your team or not. Query: are our radicals honorable? The Cuban variety isn't.

The Echo's only New Year's resolution: to never cease trying for perfection. We'll never get there but we'll keep trying.

Campaign Promises Catch Up!

A lot of people in this area thought that Minnesota didn't have the nation's top football team of 1960 and Monday the University of Washington Huskies furnished them a lot of evidence. Should it have been the Puskies or Ole Miss's Rebels?

A Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph release shows there are a few places, such as Christmas Island, to which their users have no service even though they can reach some 133 million phones. What surprised us, however, was that Canadians and Icelandians averaged more phone conversations per person than did our country's inhabitants, the figures per person being 530 508 and 496 respectively. Almost any husband would swear his wife doubled that figure, and, perhaps, vice versa.

Miss Kingston Becomes Bride of Gerald Scafidi

In a small but impressive ceremony last Friday at 4 p.m. in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, Miss Rose Ann Kingston and Gerald Scafidi were united in marriage. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kingston while his parents are Mr. and Mrs. August Scafidi.

The double ring rites were performed by the Rev. Magr. Martin Moloney in the presence of the immediate families.

Miss Kingston was attired in a short frock of white chiffon featuring a softly gathered skirt and a fitted, stirrered bodice. Her small white hat had a matching veil and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pink rosebuds surrounded by white pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Miss Gloria Lohmer, maid of honor, wore a black chiffon dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white feathered carnations.

Edmund Fahy, Jr., served as Mr. Scafidi's best man.

A reception followed for members of both families at the home of the bride's parents on W. Main Street.

To receive, Mrs. Kingston chose a two piece black ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of white chrysanthemums. The groom's ensemble was in a winter blue ensemble accented with a small white hat, black accessories and a similar corsage.

Winter flowers adorned the rooms and the bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with the wedding cake.

Carnation blooms and greenery surrounded the cake which was flanked with crystal candleholders holding white tapers.

For their honeymoon to an undisclosed destination, the bride wore a flowered woolen jersey dress in varying shades of blue, black accessories and the pink corsage from her wedding bouquet.

Mrs. Kingston will be at home with her parents until Mr. Scafidi who is with the Navy receives his orders to a new station. He was formerly stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in Illinois.

oulda Gone Fishin'

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN

much doing in the fishing world this week, too many holidays and bad weather. Weather has been good and had but the few hardy who braved the pneumonia climate came back with fish. Seems to me to hit far up the Jordan and Pearl Rivers on troilred especially those with a trailing popping bug.

er hunting has been good this year and game warden Nolan reports he has checked nine deer killed in the county this year. Among the successful hunters were Laurence Ladner of Rocky Hill, Charlie Murphy of Gulfport, Ronald Ladner, Glenn Ford and Ladner.

Deers Were Biting was kind enough to organize a posse to track us down Sunday we could get a picture of the ten-point deer killed by Laurence Ladner just off the Kiln Road. Laurence said he knocked the buck down with a little grandson, Troy Lane Deschamps of Gulfport, an up and coming hunter, made the kill. Weight of the deer was estimated at 160 pounds. Also on the hunt was Troy's brother Randy.

hunters in this area are grateful for the extension of the season Jan. 2 until Sunday, Jan. 8 and we hear Louis Necaise of the school board is cancelling all appointments for the week.

other grandfather-grandson team, Charlie Murphy of Logtown at home the venison last week. Don't know the boy's monicker.

second half of the dove season closes Jan. 15. Ducks, geese and other birds will be off-limits after Saturday, deer Sunday. Wilson's will close Jan. 15. Only a few days remain for most hunting and next Sunday everyone can clean their guns and put them away on rabbit hunters. They will be in business until Jan. 31 when the season closes until October.

prise today was 7:03, sunset 5:10, Friday 7:04 - 5:11; Saturday 5:11 and Sunday 7:04 - 5:12 for the benefit of those who intend the season hunting ducks. Legal shooting hours for migratory birds are from half an hour before sunrise to sunset.

den Mauffray, Sylvan and Jack Ladner went on a bird hunting in New Hebron last week and we hear they really got a slew.

eking of Ladners one of our scout reports that Curtis Ladner of Postoffice threw a world-shaking wringing at his home on State attended by about 50 Ladners. Only foreigners were Lloyd and Birmingham and Eddie and Rita Blaise. We were invited but after stern reprimands we received after the recent story of the two who stole a hog in Lakeshore thought we'd better stay away such a large gathering of Ladners.

back of hungry hunters were scheduled to round out the bird season Wednesday afternoon. Included in the mob were A. Mitchell, August Seaford, Joe di Benedetto, Charlie Banderet, Ladner, Alden Mauffray and Joe Kern. Hope nobody got hurt.

Echo bowling team has been dwelling in the cellar in the Ping-Pong league but are on the move. They won four straight last week and are only a couple of games away from Missouri. Members of the team are Mickey Gleber, captain, Pat Cos-Fay Bufkin, Lillian Givens, Beulah Benigno and Ruth Mender-about every sportsman we know was either at the Sugar game Monday or glued to the TV. Ole Miss got a surprise and completely outplayed in the second and third quarters but who fore it was too late and displayed the form that had them on the nation's football heap for a good part of the season.

the Gibbs is no doubt one of the country's best quarterbacks to have to wonder at his continuous passing in view of the many completions and being thrown for big losses. In the final quarter numerous pass attempts from the o w n 43 Gibbs handed off to Doty who cracked through tackle for a good gain and between and Jim Anderson they carried the ball to the Rice three from Gibbs took it over for the clincher.

out the most disappointed man in town was the only Minnesota ate we know, Bill Cooley, whose alma mater, rated No. 1 in nation, took a 17-7 shellacking from Washington in the Rose game. Some comfort was given by Don Prentice, a graduate of Illinois which is also in the Big Ten, who said that Minnesota certainly is the best band.

golfing expert, Mrs. Boss, reports they are building several and traps at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club which is another for us not playing.

basketball players are back in the saddle after the holidays. We why attendance has dropped off so badly at North Central's games - they apparently have just as good a team this year.

Bookkeeper's Lament

ar beloved bookkeeper, Milton Cormier, has one bad habit; he says after people to pay their bills so for his benefit we quote Lamar Sledge's column in the Kemper County Messenger.

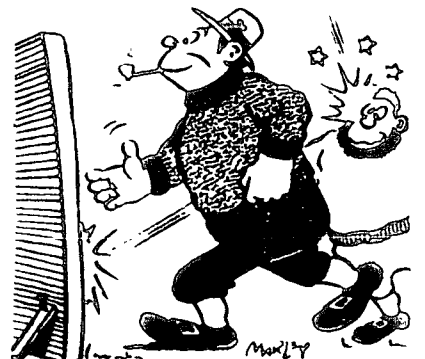

We never did get around to sending our November or December subscription bills. If you don't get a paper next week it is because your time has expired. As the gypsies say, Come by and our hands with some money.

The only reason we are printing this excuse for a paper is because we had to in order to make some publications legal. For the 15 years we have tried to find one time we could miss an issue for a week off. So far we have failed. But we are going to try another 15 years.

School Menus

Hawks Beaten

Gulfport Throttles Douglas

The Gulfport Commodores found the key to handling the state champion North Central Hawks Tuesday night in B. Frank Brown Memorial Gymnasium at Gulfport by holding ace scorer Douglas Necaise to five points and defeating the Hawks 69-57.

Coch Billy Sills promised, however, that the Hawks would regain some of their prestige Friday night when they tackle Bay High in the Tigers' own cage.

North Central matched Gulfport goal for goal in the first half, trailing by one point at the end of the first period and six at the end of the half. But in the third stanza the mighty Hawks appeared to fall apart and lost the quarter by a 10-point margin. They finished strong and took the final period by two.

It was the third straight win for the Commodores since the Christmas holidays. Credit for holding Douglas Necaise down to five points was given to Commodore Dan Denton.

Berlin Necaise was high with 17, Calvin Shaw got 16 and McCoy Peterson 15.

Score by quarters:
N. Central 17 14 6 20-57
Gulfport 18 19 14 18-69

Gulfport also won the opener between the school's B team 59-46. Berlin Ladner led the scoring with 17 points.

2 Abandoned Bikes Found in Waveland

Waveland Town Marshal Fred Bourgeois reports two abandoned bicycles were discovered along Central Avenue between Nicholson Avenue and Conrad Lane three weeks ago and may be claimed at Town Hall.

He said the bikes were noticed by Alderman Dominic Sauter who then called the marshal. Definite identification of the bicycles will be required, Bourgeois said, before they will be released.

FRIDAY—Navy beans and rice, spinach, bread, apple pie.

service office at $75 per month. Some three-two were recommended.

Bids for annual supplies were received and where possible some were accepted, others being held until prices and quantities can be checked.

After Luther and Hubbard said funds were again short to the general treasury fund, Friserson moved and Livingston seconded that $45,000 be borrowed from the school fund. Vote was unanimous. A loan of $4,000 was also approved from the school fund to the Best 3 road and bridge maintenance fund.

Two bids were received for supplying concrete. They were from R. F. (Dick) Mestayer Lumber Co., Inc., and Bay Ready-Mix, Mrs. Opal Orr, proprietor. Bids were on various grades and types of material and both were accepted pending a check of which terms were lowest and best. Material will be obtained from both companies, whichever is cheapest on the particular item needed, Hubbard said.

Several bids were received on asphalt, sand, gravel and other supplies and the same procedure was followed.

Bid of Cae Oil Co. to supply gasoline was accepted. Bids of Cae and American Super Service Station were accepted for three. Hancock County Eagle bid for legal advertising was accepted.

Hancock Bank, the only bidder, was accepted as county depository. Another lone bidder, Mississippi Aggregate Co., was approved for furnishing slag, also bids of American Concrete Works for piling and American Sand and Gravel Co. for sand and road 11061B.
